HSIL

Passion is the force that helps in leveraging the potential of today.

And the potential of today defines the possibilities of tomorrow.

Back in the 1960s, when we embarked on our journey into the future, we saw ahead of us a plethora of opportunities waiting to be unleashed. And we surged forward with passion to create the infrastructure, and to build the systems needed to make the most of those opportunities.

We have spent more than five decades strengthening this potential as we strive to address the needs of today. We have focused our energies on anticipating the aspirations of tomorrow as we work towards delivering greater value to all our stakeholders.

Read on, for our story of new passions, new potential and new possibilities.

Delivering with Passion.

Passion that motivates excellence. And nurtures growth.

Can a business as prosaic as ours inspire zeal?

At HSIL, we consider passion or zeal to be integral to a company's business philosophy, and central to the inspirational mandate that steers its growth.

We deem it to be the motivational force that empowers an organisation to deliver on the opportunities of today and tomorrow.

New Passion

Our actions are powered by our zeal

And led by the desires of our consumers, we surged zealously towards higher excellence and growth during FY15-16...

We scripted our story of growth and expansion with a visionary approach and stringent adherence to our core values.

We leveraged our intrinsic strengths to challenge the existing, and create ground-breaking innovations with new and synergistic offerings aimed at enhancing consumer lifestyles.

A passion driven by values

Our intrinsic values are the key drivers of our journey from leveraging today's potential to unveiling tomorrow's possibilities. Standing unwaveringly firm amid a transforming industry landscape, our values have equipped us with the strength to chart new frontiers of expansion and progress. They have helped us create the platform on which is built the edifice of our success, transforming us from what began in 1960 as Hindustan Twyford's Ltd, a technical collaboration with UK's Twyford's Ltd, into India's leading sanitaryware, packaging and consumer products brand entity – the HSIL Limited.

Augmenting the product portfolio

With the consumer at the forefront of our strategic business plans, we continued to launch new product lines to strengthen our portfolio through the year. Our strategic foray into the consumer business space was further underlined by the introduction of a new brand – moonbow - under which we introduced air purifiers. We also entered into a co-branded marketing arrangement with Group Atlantic, France -a leading USD 1.5 Billion player in heating, ventilation and air conditioning market in France & Europe, and experts in water heating systems -to introduce technologically superior and aesthetically appealing range of water heaters - hindware-atlantic.

Further, to scale up our Building Products Division (BPD) in the coming years, we decided to enter into the plastic pipes business during FY15-16. We plan to utilise our existing sales and distribution networks to create a stronghold in both, the OEM and the replacement markets, in this business. We have also aggressively expanded into the luxury segment across our sanitaryware and bathroom product streams, in line with the desires and needs of the discerning consumers.

Our passion and dedication was evident in our Packaging Products Division (PPD) too, as we decided to enter the security caps and closures market to address the demands of our expanding institutional customer base.

hindware-atlantic water heater and moonbow air purifier were presented with "Product of the year award" (POY), world's largest consumer voted award survey conducted by AC Neilson. It is an internationally recognised certification that celebrates and rewards the best innovations in consumer products and services.

The rewards of passion

The Company's committed approach translated into award-winning milestones in the year. The various awards and recognitions we won endorse our visionary, future-focused growth strategy.

Strengthening consumer engagement

At HSIL, we take pride in leading the industry with our innovative offerings that are designed to meet the new-age consumer desires and connect deeply with them. Our faucet business, which stands out as a shining example of the Company's consumer-centric approach, showed remarkable growth over the previous year. The Company has the distinction of manufacturing the largest range of faucets in the industry. Ten new ranges of faucets were added across the Company's key brands during the year.

With technologically advanced and novel designs across the gamut of bathroom products, our flagship brand hindware consolidated its market leadership position in the sanitaryware industry, reaching out to more and more consumers across the country. Our innovative focus enabled us to expand the presence of our brands into new markets across the country. Our newly launched Consumer Products also benefitted from our various consumer-oriented initiatives through the year.

Branding & marketing initiatives

With our consumer research driving our strategic plans, we designed and invested in exclusive campaigns for various brands, using a heady combination of print, television and digital media, to strengthen the salience of each brand during the year.

The Building Products Business signed up Shah Rukh Khan for hindware as a brand ambassador and rolled out new campaign "Bathrooms you keep admiring". These campaigns have helped take awareness of hindware brand to 85 per cent top-of-mind recall. While our luxury brand Queo managed to further entrench itself in consumer minds. Launched five years ago, and designed in Italy by award-winning product designers, the Queo brand is making good progress. And, with digital media becoming an integral part of our marketing mix all our brands engaged with consumers across multiple touch points to strengthen visibility.

In the Consumer Products Business, we are currently among the top three spenders in the geyser/water heater segment. Our water heater campaign - 'Switch on Joy', and moonbow air purification campaign - 'Refresh your world', received tremendous appreciation in the brand circles, and also gained excellent visibility in the market.

New Potential

The Moonbow air purifiers, launched on online and organised retail platforms simultaneously, witnessed commendable business traction within months of launch, at the back of strong digital and print campaigns. We also received overwhelming response to the hindware-atlantic water heaters.

We harnessed the power of the digital media during the year to target the right TG through the social media. This enabled our hindware brand to engage with consumers across multiple touch points throughout the year.

Our marketing initiatives also enabled four models of hindware chimneys to remain in the top 10 sellers list on the Snapdeal platform for four months at a stretch. The EVOK e-commerce platform also continued to leverage the potential of the digital platform to drive greater traction.

Moonbow Air Purifier

Automate

For the faucet and sanitaryware business, we have 20 after sales service centres located across India, servicing 600+ districts, through "hindware care" which constitutes of in-house sales service team of 300+ certified service engineers.

Creating product differentiators

In the Building Products Division (BPD), we sharpened our technological forte to deliver superior water-saving products. We customised our new series of sanitaryware and faucets to match two distinct categories of consumers – developers looking for designer products at affordable price points, and discerning consumers aspiring for luxury offerings. Our differentiated approach has ensured that all our products resonate with the needs of their respective consumer segments in the BPD Business.

In the Packaging Products Division (PPD) Business, we are the only leading company producing special coloured bottles for some niche partners. Led by our pioneering initiatives, we have light-weighted saline and pharmaceutical bottles to make them more user and environment friendly, enabling better realisations in this division. We have also opened new vistas of growth through our strategic foray into the security caps and closures business, as a step towards creating another product differentiator for the Company.

Creating service differentiators

Our service differentiation has made us a manufacturer of choice for our building and packaging products. We made significant investments during the year in augmenting the HSIL service infrastructure, which continues to be a strong pillar of our growth. Our service centres are committed to delivering prompt repair and replacement service, usually within 24 hours of receiving a complaint.

Retail outreach

We continued to augment the retail experience for our consumers through our expanding portfolio of Gallerias, Boutiques, Studios and Queo Emporio showrooms. To strengthen the retail reach of hindware, we added more than 15 new Gallerias during FY15-16 in cities such as Bangalore, Kolkata, Hyderabad and Chennai as well as tier 2 towns. Our four exclusive hindware Lacasa display centres at Mumbai, Bengaluru, Cochin and Ahmedabad are helping us attract architects, designers and end-consumers by showcasing our complete hindware and Queo collection. Going forward, we plan to further expand our dealer network, Gallerias, and shop-in-shops to penetrate deeper into the Tier II and III regions of the country.

The potential of our innovatively enhanced product offerings to deliver greater value to our customers, backed by our service strength, is a major driving force of our strategic business approach. Unveiling tomorrow's Possibilities.

Is it possible to see tomorrow's opportunities today?

Yes, it is our firm belief that the prospects for future growth are rooted in the strategic direction we take today.

It is our conviction that by nurturing the potential that is visible today it is possible to make the most of the opportunities of tomorrow.

New Possibilities

We see tomorrow's possibilities in today's potential

And we continued to adopt bold new tactics to give a more focused direction to our future plans during FY15-16...

With their desires more dynamically aligned to the growth story of modern India, and benchmarked to global standards of excellence, the new-age Indian consumers are constantly looking ahead. They see new possibilities of scaling up their lifestyle, and desire products and solutions that match those possibilities.

We are cognizant of these evolving needs of tomorrow's consumers and are creating infrastructure on which we can build the HSIL of tomorrow.

The efficiencies we are building into our operational systems, coupled with cost and resource efficiencies, we are working to create a future-centric philosophy.

Products designed for the future

We are continually innovating new products keeping tomorrow's needs in mind. From the luxury and wellness space, to purification and water heaters, our new brands and products are matched as per the expectations of the future consumers. The new-age consumers seek holistic and futuristic solutions to improve their living standards, and have the ability and willingness to invest in their comfort.

With each of our new business offerings, we are striving to capture a major chunk of an expanding consumer base. The CPVC and UPVC pipes business that we have recently entered promises to further scale up the experience of our consumers in the years ahead. Our foray into the security caps and closures business is also aligned to the future desires of our institutional clients, facing mass scale of spurious alcohol and in need of fool-proof solutions to tackle the growing menace of counterfeiting.

As of March 31, 2016, as many as 23 of our water closets have received IAMPO certified 'star rating', WEP-1. Some of our select range of faucets too have received star rating for their water saving designs.

Creating efficiencies for a sustainable future

Conservation of resources is high on our agenda for growth. To this end, we are regularly taking initiatives aimed at reducing environmental damage and resource wastage to improve efficiencies. Our R&D department remains focused on the development of 'green building products' in line with the global thrust on creating energy and water efficient products. This focus will help us further minimise the environmental impact of our business.

We are the front runner, with the largest range of 'star rated' offerings of EWCs and faucets designed to minimise water usage.

Our manufacturing facilities continued to transition towards more economical and environment-friendly processes and systems during the year. Change of energy mix, which had enabled us to shift to low cost energy, is facilitating the creation of further cost efficiencies in our business.

Building capacities for the future

What we see ahead is possibilities galore, which we are proactively preparing ourselves to leverage. As part of our future-focused strategy, it is our constant endeavour to build our capacities and capabilities to meet the needs of the future. To this end, we have embarked on ambitious capacity expansion plans, which include creation of additional capacities for the manufacture of our existing as well as newly-added product streams of UPVC and CPVC pipes, as also security caps and closures.

Innovation in design and quality, greater focus on the development of sustainable green products, increased cost and resource efficiencies, and enhancement of technological prowess are some of the key measures which we see as pivotal to the translation of today's growth potential into tomorrow's possibilities for driving value.

Building Products Division

Our strategic decision to expand into high-end luxury sanitaryware, faucets and bathroom products is driven by the demands of today's consumer. This move has consistently helped augment the scale of our Building Products Division.

Key initiatives in sanitaryware & bathroom products

- Doubling our faucets distribution led to maximising our faucets business during the year under review.
- Change in product mix in the sanitaryware segment, coupled with shift in positioning to luxury products, has led to increase in the sales of brand Queo. The luxury segment is where we see higher margins coming from, going forward.
- Coupled with our brand promotion initiatives, we have also augmented the retail experience for our customers through our expanding portfolio of Gallerias, Boutiques, Studios, Lacasa display centres and Queo Emporio showrooms.
- Expanded the online retail reach of our brands through innovative digital initiatives.

Expanding potential through piping foray

As a complete solutions provider in the bathroom space, with an eye on the transforming consumer needs, we have forayed into the CPVC and UPVC pipes & fittings segment, where we expect greater scale building up in the coming years. We see in our collaboration with Japan's Sekisui Chemical Co. Ltd. for CPVC resin the potential for unleashing increased growth possibilities going forward.

Growing opportunities in consumer products

In the Consumer Products Business space, we have unveiled new possibilities for future growth, not only for the Company but also its multiple stakeholders. To keep pace with the evolving consumer desires, we saw a massive potential to leverage our strengths in the field of home comfort products. And, we decided to make the most of this potential by expanding our business into new product lines, specially purification and water heaters to begin with. The water heaters category has already shown significant expansion in Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan and Haryana markets.

In kitchen appliances, we are continuously growing our market. Growth in this category has been driven in particular by Delhi, UP, East Zone, E-Commerce and Modern Trade markets.

HSIL holds #3 position in the faucet business in the country.

Where passion meets

Responsibility

Passion at work is just one facet of our business philosophy. An equally, if not more important aspect of our business focus is our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) function, to which we have been totally committed since the inception of our business.

Driven by our social mandate, we further invested in our CSR agenda during FY15-16 to take forward our existing programmes and launch new initiatives aimed at inclusive growth of the communities around which we operate. One key initiative in this respect was the 'Aap Ke Liye' project launched in Bhiwadi in Rajasthan in October 2015 as part of our mission to carry forward the Central Government's 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan'.

Under the project, we built additional 25 toilets, taking the total number to 50 in village Sahrod. These toilets have been constructed within the compound of the village homes to encourage use by the entire family. The Community Water Centre (CWC), which has a capacity of 1000 litres, has been built at the village centre to provide clean drinking water to the villagers. The CWC uses RO (Reverse Osmosis) technology to ensure supply of pure water. The CWC is much appreciated by the villagers as they were earlier dependent on ground water, which contained impurities and caused health issues.

The 'Aap Ke Liye' project, encompassing the provision of sanitation facilities, water supply and distribution in select locales or villages, addresses three core issues. As the first step, HSIL is providing infrastructure, which is followed by imbuing the rural people with a mind-set change to use toilets. The third part of the project involves supply of safe drinking water.

We have tied up with 'MA My Anchor Foundation' for this programme, which we plan to replicate soon in another village. In tandem with the project philosophy, the Foundation is engaged in creating awareness and building capacities to sensitise the rural community about the importance of drinking clean water and maintaining hygiene.

The Community Water Centre (CWC) which has a capacity of

has been built at the village centre

Our CSR focus in Bahadurgarh encompasses four major activities - Stitching classes for women, full-fledged Dispensary, IT training (Computer classes) and Literacy classes for all gender & age group.

The dispensary was further revamped with diagnostic facilities as well as induction of a women doctor. This facilities is managed by experienced doctors and staff to cater to the medical needs of the people in and around HSIL's Bahadurgarh plant.

Enhancing Skill development is one of the key pillar of our CSR initiatives. Thus apart from are existing stitching & vocational classes we started literacy classes to impart basic education. This new initiatives just concluded training two batches of pupils.

The hindware orphanage (housing 23 girls and seven boys in the 4-16 years age group) we built in Bahadurgarh has been handed over to the Government but we actively monitor its progress.

Message

On our performance during the year, one key factor that equipped us to battle the market unpredictability was our focus on enhancing operational and cost efficiencies across our business fabric.

Dear Shareholders,

I write to you at the end of another iconic year for your Company. It has been a year of diversification into new product streams aligned to the evolving taste of the consumers, and also a year of moving further up the value chain towards the higher end of the market. While our newly launched Consumer Products Business has opened to excellent response, our foray into CPVC and UPVC pipes and the fittings business promises to unveil new vistas of expansion for us. With these initiatives the stage is now set for us to scale higher echelons of growth.

As you are well aware, changing lifestyles and aspirations have always guided our strategic focus, and it further steered our growth charter during the year despite the challenging macro environment. The business continued to be pressured by persistent stagnation in the real estate market, particularly in the residential space, coupled with increased competition from global brands. In addition, the volatility in the market posed serious risks to our progressive plans through the year, threatening to derail our growth trajectory. But we handled these myriad challenges efficiently and with focus.

Also, on the brighter side, some signs of positivity emerged in the commercial real estate segment and we were quick to make the most of the opportunities on the strength of our leaner and more flexible business model. This enabled us to leverage the potential in the replacements market to drive expansion in the Building Products Division (BPD). We also initiated focused measures to strengthen our Packaging Products Division (PPD) by venturing into new and more profitable avenues of growth, notably in the manufacture of security caps and closures. Besides, our newly launched Consumer Products Business business is already showing signs of delivering extraordinary prospect, triggering a new wave of optimism in the organisation.

The external macro environment is also witnessing noticeable winds of change, which promise to further propel growth for the industry. The Government's initiatives to boost the economic sentiment, led by initiatives such as '100 Smart Cities', 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' and housing for all are beginning to translate into some positive change on the ground and we see these developments emerging as precursors of growth. The Government's decision to housing loan interest rates also comes as a welcome move, as it makes homes more affordable.

In my opinion, market dynamics, coupled with an expanding middle class, will continue to create higher demand for our products across all our business segments.

Building efficiencies

Elaborating further on our performance during the year, one key factor that equipped us to battle the market unpredictability was our focus on enhancing operational and cost efficiencies across our business fabric. From fuel and raw material savings to increased recoveries, especially at our Bahadurgarh plant, we have successfully achieved excellent efficiencies through our value chain and remain committed to the creation of higher efficiencies going forward. I am confident that our improved operational efficiencies, backed by better cost management, will play a pivotal role in further consolidating our leadership position across all our business segments in the coming years.

Talking of efficiencies, as you know environmental protection and resource management has also been a core thrust area for your Company over the years. Our water efficiencies today match global standards and we are credited with setting up the first Effluent Treatment Plant in Haryana. We have the distinction of offering the largest range of WEP star-rated products and also the largest range of green certified faucets. Reduced fuel consumption at the kiln, better raw material mix and recycling of broken sanitaryware are other key measures we have initiated to nurture ecological and resource-led efficiencies.

Nurturing The Brand

As mentioned earlier, growing competition, especially from international brands, has emerged a serious threat in recent times, necessitating enhanced focus on nurturing our brand strength. While we already enjoy strong brand salience. We have now upped the ante even more, with a healthy 360° promotional package encompassing the print, TV and digital (including social) media. The result of our brand and marketing initiatives is manifest in the increased visibility and recall of our brands.

Social Agenda

Besides our strong environmental and water saving focus, our social agenda encompasses a wide expanse of other activities aimed at promoting inclusive growth. As a socially aware and responsible corporate, we have imbibed within our organisational framework a people-centric philosophy that drives our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) focus. We have in place a well-documented CSR policy that is centered on the eradication of hunger and poverty, promotion of education, health and gender equality, providing vocational skills and ensuring environmental sustainability, among others.

During the year gone by, we launched a new CSR project in Bhiwadi, Rajasthan, under the aegis of 'AapkeLiye', involving construction of toilets and a Community Water Centre (CWC) for integrated development of Sahrod Village in the first phase. With this project, which also encompasses water supply and distribution, we have taken another major step in taking forward our CSR agenda.

The Way Forward

It has, no doubt, been an exciting and satisfying year for us, and we take pride in the many milestones we have achieved during 2015-16. But these successes would not have been possible without the dedicated and unstinted efforts of our team members, who have individually and collectively steered our ambition to become the preferred choice of consumers in the businesses of our presence. I would like to take a moment to thank all members of the HSIL family, as well as all other stakeholders, on my own behalf and on behalf of all the Board members.

Having come so far, it is time now to look ahead and surge forward to cross new frontiers of growth. What I see ahead is substantial expansion across all our business divisions. The real estate sector is already showing signs of improvement and the wide consumer acceptance of our Consumer Products Business promises excellent potential for higher growth, going forward. The innovative products we have added to our PPD business segment will also start contributing to our revenues in the coming years, adding a new shine to our performance. Our focus on retail, which continues to be a strong growth driver for the industry, also augurs well for our future growth.

With such positivity to propel our growth, and with the continued support and cooperation of all our stakeholders, customers and business partners, I am sure we shall notch even bigger successes going forward.

Warm Regards

Review

Our foray into new streams of growth in the Building Products Division (BPD) and remarkable gains in the Packaging Products Division (PPD) were the key highlights of your Company's business during the year.

Dear Shareholders,

Your company has ably sustained a level of growth over last few years despite the continuous challenges in domestic and global economies, and last year was no different. Though the macro external environment remained subdued, the Indian growth story has continued to be on track, primarily steered by the government initiatives for faster structural reforms such as increased FDI, public investments, etc. which has helped raise market sentiments.

Driven by a vigorous strategic approach, your Company posted growth during the year. Our performance has been built on the foundation of our three pillars of progress – passion, potential and possibilities, which enabled us to remain bullish across our business segments despite slower growth in the infrastructure and housing sectors.

With consumers at the core of our strategic charter, we successfully leveraged the emerging market opportunities to report growth during the year. Notwithstanding a sluggish real estate environment, we achieved Total Income from operations of ₹1948 Crores representing growth of around 4.7%, with PBT growth of 21.5%. Strategic diversification into new business verticals carrying higher growth potential, coupled with improved efficiencies and prudent fiscal management, created a favorable environment for your Company to scale operations and bottom-line growth during the year.

Our foray into new streams of growth in the Building Products Division (BPD) and remarkable gains in the Packaging Products Division (PPD) were the key highlights of your Company's business during the year. Aimed at enabling sustained growth, and steered by enhanced value proposition for our customers, our growth strategy yielded excellent returns.

Net Revenue in our Building Products Division grew 10.5% during the year to ₹ 1,034 Crores from ₹ 936 Crores in the previous fiscal. Growth in this business, led by the faucet segment, was driven by our consistent and consumer-centric strategy, thereby we strengthened our product portfolio and expanded our bouquet of value-added solutions to match the transforming customer needs and aspirations. Another factor that is yielding rich dividends for our BPD business is our strategic decision to enhance our focus on the high end luxury segment.

I am also proud to state that our Packaging Products Division notched new milestones of excellence during the year. Despite the lower net revenue by around 1.2% of ₹ 909 Crores during the financial year 2015-16, the division reported an excellent EBIT growth of around 35% over the previous financial year. Equipped with a strong technological and innovative edge, we have pioneered the manufacture of light-weighted, user friendly bottles to boost competitiveness and profitability in this business. Further, led by our commitment to provide value-added offerings to all our customers, we have expanded the ambit of our PPD business into the manufacture of security caps and closures. This initiative is targeted at our esteemed customers, who have been facing the menace of counterfeiting in their products.

Our synergistic foray into the plastic piping (CPVC and UPVC) business is another development that we anticipate will translate into further growth avenues for BPD going forward. I am confident that our tie-up with Japan's Sesikui Chemical Co Ltd for CPVC resin will facilitate our progress in this business. The levers of growth are firmly in place and we are well placed to use them to capitalise on the possibilities that seem ready to open up in BPD.

What I see ahead is remarkable growth potential in this business, especially with the increased Government thrust on construction and infrastructure segments for national development.

As mentioned earlier, customer remains a key factor in steering our sustainable growth charter and we are strategically harnessing the opportunities to grow our recently launched Consumer Products Business. With strong acceptance of our new Consumer Products Division, led by 'hindware-atlantic' water heaters and 'moonbow' air purifiers, we foresee immense market potential to scale up in this business going forward. The existing setup of sales and distribution network for consumer products is already delivering good results for this business and we plan to expand it further to meet the increased demand that we are expecting over the next few quarters. We have optimistically planned to target the establishment of 1000 distributors and 10,000 retail points for our consumer products in the next 2 years, which we are confident of achieving, given the highly positive response.

As a market packed with possibilities for continued expansion and progress, India continues to offer a large matrix of potential growth drivers for us. At HSIL, we are continuously finding ways to tap these opportunities by strengthening our capacities and capabilities across our business segments. Your Company's goals are aligned to the needs of the future and to this end we are augmenting our manufacturing prowess to create additional capacities for the production of our new product streams, pipes, security caps & closures. In our existing business, we are currently engaged in expanding our sanitaryware manufacturing capacities to 4.2 million pieces per year from the current 3.8 million. I am confident that the capacity additions we have strategically embarked on will create the necessary infrastructure for our journey into the next phase of growth and take on the opportunities of tomorrow.

Capacity expansion is, of course, only one, albeit critical facet of our progressive agenda. A better product mix, sustained and prudent focus on cost rationalisation, and continuous efforts to boost plant efficiencies are some of the other crucial facets of our strategic growth plan. Innovation, along with judicious resource management, will remain significant enablers as well, as we prepare to create a more conducive environment for higher growth and value delivery.

The signs of positivity are well defined and clearly visible. With a better financial leverage position and reduced long-term debt, your Company is poised to take the next big leap in its future growth trajectory. Strong brand salience, backed by a transformational vision aligned to the evolving needs of a more discerning consumer base, will continue to propel us on the path to greater progress. .

Partnering us in this journey of progress are our valued customers, who are central to our strategic plans, as also our dedicated employees, investors, bankers and others. I take this opportunity to thank them all for helping us realise our inherent potential to deliver higher value to our stakeholders.

Warm Regards

Sandip Somany

Management Discussion and Analysis

In a world of infinite aspirations and finite resources, the companies best positioned for success are the ones that have flexible growth strategies.

In a world of infinite aspirations and finite resources, the companies best positioned for success are the ones that have flexible growth strategies, the capacity for quick diversification, and the ability to anticipate the future needs of consumers. With its business philosophy rooted in these key strategic charters of growth, HSIL has consistently retained its market leadership in India, whose current phase of growth is perhaps only the prologue to a much bigger story of economic might.

As India stands on the cusp of higher economic growth, HSIL is getting ready to make the most of the burgeoning opportunities. Notwithstanding a period of slack growth, premium real estate continues to hold promise, even as the emerging urban youth population in India is becoming more aspirational, with their demands more aligned to global preferences. The opportunity landscape for HSIL is indeed large.

GLOBAL ECONOMY

Globally, the year 2015-16 was hard to define, as various political events overshadowed economic activities. Overall, the advanced economies showed gradual improvement after an initial period of shaky growth, but the developing countries experienced a slowdown. China, in particular, witnessed slow growth, leading to a detrimental effect on commodity prices worldwide.

At a regional level, the economic scenario was marred by erratic trends. While Europe was pre-occupied with an unprecedented refugee crisis, the Middle Eastern oil economies suffered sharp revenue losses, and the American recovery hit a hurdle as output slowed down. Japan focused on stimulating growth but struggled with its massive debt.

As per the World Economic Outlook released by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) in April 2016, global growth in 2015 stood at 3.1%.

Global & Regional Growth Estimates (%)

	2015	2016	2017
World Output	3.1	3.2	3.5
Advanced Economies	1.9	1.9	2.0
United States	2.4	2.4	2.5
Euro Area	1.6	1.5	1.6
Japan	0.5	0.5	-0.1
Emerging and Developing Asia	4.0	4.1	4.6
China	6.9	6.5	6.2
India	7.3	7.5	7.5

India surges ahead of China; gap expected to increase further

Amid serious concerns over the state of the world economy, India remained a bright star. While in 2014 its overall growth rate was at the same level as China, in 2015, India was decidedly ahead by the end of the third quarter, surpassing China's 6.9 per cent growth and also out-pacing all other emerging economies.

The gap between India and China is expected to increase further, in favour of India, by the end of 2016. While the Indian economy is likely to maintain the growth momentum going forward, economic growth in China is expected to drop further, as per the IMF forecast.

INDIAN ECONOMY

Though India was not insulated from the global developments, its focus on developing the domestic market rather than relying on commodity and product exports protected it to a large extent from the external turmoil. Led by higher manufacturing growth and gains from benign crude oil prices, the Indian economy was estimated to have grown at 7.6%, according to reports.

That the Indian growth story is still intact is evident from the fact that in the fourth quarter of FY2015-16, India's Consumer Confidence Index score at 134 was the highest globally, according to an AC Nielsen consumer confidence survey. This is the highest for the country since 2007 and comes after three consecutive quarters at 131. In comparison, Consumer Confidence Index score for United States and China stood at 110 and 105 respectively. The survey also showed that almost two-thirds of Indian consumers spend as soon as the idea of buying occurs to them, instead of postponing the purchase – a clear sign of the strong consumer sentiment in the country.

Consumer spending in India is forecast to rise to US$3.6 trillion by 2020.

Housing is one of the segments expected to see the highest rates of spending, which will give a boost to all related industries. The slew of regulatory measures introduced for the housing and real estate sector in the year 2015, coupled with the recent budget is expected to increase investment activity in the sector. The recently passed Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Bill, 2016, through easing of the home-buying process, may also provide a tailwind to the sector. The housing sector is also likely to see improved recovery as a result of the various housing schemes announced by the government.

Notwithstanding the challenges faced by the Indian economy due to the uneven recovery in the world economy, strong domestic factors lift the economic growth outlook for the Indian economy. An environment of declining inflation, coupled with the government's fiscal prudence, has given the Reserve Bank of India a window to reduce lending rates. This, in turn, could benefit consumers through cheaper home loans and personal loans, among others. The government is also geared to implement the 7th pay commission recommendations. It is expected that when this happens, expenditure on pay and pension will increase by 20%, placing additional income in the hands of government employees and armed force veterans thereby benefitting several sectors, real estate included.

The government's commitment to executing reforms, an above normal monsoon leading to revival in rural demand, acceleration in public investments and a pick-up in domestic demand are all expected to bring in positive results for the economy, going forward. The IMF forecast released in April 2016 put the Indian GDP growth at 7.5% in 2016, to stay at the same level in 2017. This is higher than the projected global GDP growth of 3.2% and the emerging economies' collective growth of 4.1% in 2016.

BUILDING PRODUCTS INDUSTRY

Sanitaryware

In terms of the demand for sanitaryware, India is a market with the maximum potential in the Asia-Pacific region – and is expected to remain so for the next few years. The region itself is ahead of Europe, the Americas, and the rest of the world with respect to the industry demand. Research on the market for building materials in India lists sanitaryware among the five main product categories that have a strong demand forecast for the coming years.

Market mix, size and growth trend

The sanitaryware industry in India is divided into the organised and unorganised sectors, roughly in a 55:45 ratio. The major source of demand for sanitaryware products is the retail sector. Region wise, the South is the biggest revenue contributor for sanitaryware, followed by the North, especially Delhi NCR.

The total size of the sanitaryware market in India is currently estimated at ₹ 3,800 Crores with the long-term growth trend expected to be robust. As per industry reports, the overall market is growing at a CAGR (compound annual growth rate) of about 12-14 per cent over the last four years and is projected to have an even higher growth of nearly 14-16 per cent by 2021. Players in the organised sanitaryware market are expected to be a major beneficiary of this growth due to the shift in the preferences of the consumers towards high value products.

During the year under review, with economic growth not witnessing significant traction and market sentiment remaining low, the real estate sector did not gather sufficient momentum, as evident from the large unsold inventory in large real estate projects. Thus, demand for building products from the institutional segment remained muted. Discretionary spending was also impacted during the year, thereby limiting sales for building products from retail buyers.

FAUCETS

Market mix, size and growth trend

The faucet industry in India is currently estimated at ₹ 6500 Crores estimated and has been growing at a CAGR of 16 per cent. The market is mainly segmented into categories of kitchen faucets and bathroom faucets, with bathroom faucets being the predominant category. Currently, 52 per cent of the market share in this category is being held by organised players. This share is expected to see a significant increase in the coming years on the back of evolving consumer taste and increasing demand for branded and perceptive faucet designs. According to the Value notes Report - 'Faucets Industry in India: 2014-2019', the faucet market in India is projected to grow at a CAGR of 16 per cent, to reach ₹ 10,500 Crore by FY 2019.

CONSUMER PRODUCTS

Water heaters

The water heater market in India, comprising electric water heaters, solar water heaters and gas water heaters, is currently estimated at around ₹ 1,800 Crores. Of the three categories, electric water heaters are the most popular among consumers. With their innovative features that combine energy efficiency, quality standards and safety focus, branded water heaters are becoming increasingly popular across residential and commercial sectors. This is expected to drive higher growth of the branded water heater market in the coming years; currently, the growth is around 20 per cent a year.

Air purifiers

Worsening air pollution levels in India have propelled the demand for air purifiers to eliminate impurities such as dust particles, pollen, smoke and other airborne irritants.

With increasing awareness about the detrimental health effects of these pollutants, more people are now seeking solutions that will help them inhale cleaner indoor air. This is giving a fillip to the market for air purifiers, which is expected to witness exponential growth in the years ahead. From its current estimated size of ₹ 250 Crores, the market is expected to grow at a CAGR of over 50 per cent, moving forward, according to a TechSci 2013 report.

Kitchen appliances

The kitchen appliances market in India has witnessed a boom, with middle class and affluent households in urban India investing in trendy and time-saving gadgets and fixtures for a more experiential cooking environment. Sleek chimneys, hobs and cooktops are becoming common features of modern kitchens, with a shift in preference from traditional kitchen designs to modular layouts. The growing demand is also fuelled by joint families breaking up into affluent nuclear units, and more working people living alone and buying their own homes, separate from the family home. The Indian kitchen appliances market size is currently estimated at ₹ 1,500 Crores, with a projected CAGR of more than 15 per cent during 2014-19.

DEMAND DRIVERS FOR BUILDING PRODUCTS INDUSTRY

Housing thrust

Industry experts see the current slowdown in the housing industry as just a blip, as the market is far from being saturated. In fact, India is poised to be the world's 3rd largest construction market by 2025. India's construction industry is the second largest industry of the country, with a total market share of US$190 Billion, and the real estate market is one of the fastest growing sub-sectors of construction with an estimated market size of US$180 Billion by 2020. The current thrust on real estate development is expected to boost demand for building products.

URBANISATION

The estimated demand for urban housing from 2015 to 2019 will be 15 million units across India. The bulk of this demand will be driven by eight major cities, with Delhi-NCR, Mumbai and Bengaluru taking the lead. The middle class is the main segment looking to purchase homes in these cities. Coupled with projections of stable to positive GDP growth, along with enhanced aspirational needs, these developments augur well for the building products industry in the moving ahead.

(Source: Cushman & Wakefield)

EXPANDING MIDDLE CLASS SEGMENT

As the world's second largest middle class consumer market, India offers exciting prospects for internal demand. India's middle class potential is expected to strengthen further with reports estimating that, by 2030, the number of middle class households in the country will exceed 90 million, significantly higher than 74 million in 2014. This exceptional growth will be fuelled by the country's robust middle class segment, with an increasing propensity for discretionary spending driven by rising incomes.

GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES

Through the 'Housing for All by 2022' programme launched by the Government of India in June 2015, a target has been set to provide 20

Middle Class Homes Expansion from

74 million

million houses over the next seven years to promote affordable housing for the urban poor and rehabilitation of slum-dwellers. Additionally, the announcement of building nearly 30 million rural households, recently announced in March 2016 under the scheme will promote rural development. Going forward, this is expected to drive rural consumption significantly, triggering a cascading effect on all industries. In the longer run, it is expected to lead the way for a mass scale lifestyle upgrade, as other economic strategies such as the 'Make in India' initiative and technology penetration also begin to show results.

By discouraging open defecation and urination in villages and cities, and by providing alternatives such as pay-and-use public toilets and toilets in rural homes, government authorities are changing the very culture of sanitation in India. The 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' (Clean India Movement) aims to construct 12 crore toilets in rural India by 2019 at a cost of nearly ₹ 2 lakh crore. The initiative is aimed at cleaning India by providing access to toilet facilities and putting an end to the practice of open defecation by 2019. This is expected to yield ample benefits to major industry players over time.

In January 2016, planned urbanisation got a boost when the Government of India released the first list of 20 cities chosen for the 'Smart Cities Mission' across the country. The Centre has earmarked ₹ 48,000 Crores for the development of 100 smart cities over the next two years. Each smart city would get Central assistance of nearly ₹ 100 Crores per year for five years. The smart cities are envisaged as highly advanced urban regions in terms of infrastructure and sustainable real estate, among other things. With good sanitation facilities an important part of such infrastructural development, this is expected to push demand for sanitaryware and luxury bathroom products significantly.

HOSPITALITY AND HEALTH CARE

Although residential real estate sales have seen a degree of stagnation in some parts of the country, growth in the hospitality sector has offset some of that. The tourism and hospitality sector is among the top 15 sectors in India to attract the highest foreign direct investment. From the first quarter of FY 2000-01 till the third quarter of FY 2015-16, the hotel and tourism sector had attracted US $8.48 Billion in FDI, according to data from the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Government of India. (Source: India Brand Equity Foundation) The figure is expected to grow, with Indian and foreign hospitality majors expanding their presence in the country, and consumers expecting decent standards of sanitaryware and bathroom products even in small and mid-range hotels.

Preference for premium & luxury products

Besides the high income group, the Indian middle class and the lower income groups, with their growing spending power, have also started investing in high-end bathrooms and kitchens. The potential for customisation and luxury value-additions in these parts of the house is huge, even if the property itself does not fall in the luxury segment. Recognising this opportunity, builders have started seeing the advantages of creating a sleek bathroom and/or kitchen space that satiates the buyers' desire for an upscale feel, regardless of the location and the cost of the property.

Aspiration, environmental awareness, and the need to conserve water in densely populated cities and towns are steering consumers towards eco-friendly sanitaryware and water-saving bathroom products. The luxury segment is currently estimated to comprise 10-12 per cent of the total market.

(Source: PwC)

Among the modern trends in the premium bathroom products category are: concept washrooms and coordinated sanitaryware, faucets and accessories; water conservation technology such as high-efficiency flushing systems, infrared controls, sensor taps and smart showers. With smart-looking bathrooms becoming a lifestyle statement, these spaces are now being seen by the affluent middle class as chambers for relaxation.

REPLACEMENT MARKET

The current demand in the replacement market in the Indian sanitaryware industry is very low - estimated at 15 per cent when compared with other developed nations where it is around 80 per cent. However, with exposure to global trends and Western styles, Indians are upgrading their bathrooms more frequently now. Bathrooms in urban clusters are estimated to be getting their sanitaryware replaced every 12-14 years, instead of the usual 20 years. Changing the bathroom (toilet bowls, faucets and shower fixtures) is the easiest way to upgrade a home, giving consumers an additional reason to transform the bathroom or the kitchen in the house.

HSIL - BUILDING PRODUCTS DIVISION

HSIL is a leading player in the organised sanitaryware market in India, with around 1/3rd of the organised market share, and is the largest manufacturer of bathroom products. HSIL's sanitaryware brands are: Queo, Amore, hindware Italian Collection, hindware Art, hindware, Benelave and Raasi.

HSIL has a manufacturing capacity of 3.8 million pieces of sanitaryware products at its plants located in Bahadurgarh (Haryana) and Bibinagar (Telangana). The Company also manufactures faucets. The total manufacturing capacity is 3 million pieces per annum, of which 2.5 million pieces are manufactured at the Greenfield faucet plant at Kaharani in Bhiwadi region of Rajasthan. The remaining is manufactured at another small faucet plant in Bhiwadi. The Company's two existing sanitaryware plants are being expanded to take production capacity from 3.8 million pieces a year to 4.2 million.

An important development during the year was HSIL's foray into the consumer products space. Leveraging its brand equity and strong distribution network, the Company introduced a range of state-of-the-art water heaters and air purifiers. The water heaters were launched in July 2015, in association with the French multinational company Groupe Atlantic, a specialist in heating systems. The water heater range has been branded 'hindware-atlantic'. Air purifiers under the brand name 'moonbow' were added to the basket of offerings in December 2015.

During the year under review, HSIL planned to add manufacturing capacities in diverse areas related to the building and construction sector. The PVC Pipe industry, which comprises of three sub-segments: (i) agricultural pipes (ii) plumbing & sanitation pipes and (iii) hot and cold plumbing pipes, offers great synergies with the BPD business. The Company will be entering only the last segments, i.e., the Plastic Piping business in the field of Plumbing and Sanitation for Building and Construction industry. The market size for this targeted segment is ₹ 7000 Crores. Both segments offer attractive growth opportunities. While the plumbing and sanitation pipe segment is growing at a CAGR of 18%, the hot and cold plumbing pipe segment offers even better prospects as it is growing at a CAGR of 32%. The Company plans to leverage its sales and distribution network to expand its business into pipes, which are required not only in new real estate construction but also in the replacement market, where PVC/CPVC pipes are replacing the conventional GI pipes.

The project for the production of CPVC pipes and UPVC pipes is underway in the state of Telangana. The combined capacity for CPVC and UPVC pipes will be around 30,000 metric tonnes per annum. The plant is expected to commence commercial production in approximately 12 months. HSIL entered into an arrangement with Sekisui Chemical Company Limited, Japan, for supply of CPVC resin – a key raw material manufactured by very few companies across the world. With strong domain knowledge and expertise in building products, this diversification opens up exciting opportunities for HSIL.

Taking cognisance of the unique nature of the Indian market, with its tremendous aspiration coupled with equally strong price sensitivity, HSIL has taken the following steps to maintain overall lead, and to explore new opportunities:

- Offering premium and differentiated products based on the fast-changing lifestyle of the ambitious, young Indian.
- Identifying product demands based on rapid urbanisation, and following it up with diversification into the same.
- Put in place more efficient supply and service logistics for Tier II and Tier III cities, which have significant potential for growth in tandem with economic growth.

- Collaborating with channel partners for showcasing HSIL products effectively and creating brand recognition.
- Interacting and working with architects, interior designers, developers, etc. to bring in greater brand visibility.

Key differentiators

Impressive brand portfolio

Impressive brand portfolio: HSIL appreciates the aspirations of every economic segment and provides quality product options across price points. Starting from entry level product for the masses, and moving up to premium and luxury products for the discerning customers, HSIL's sanitaryware portfolio comprises a range of brands designed to meet the needs of different types of customers.

HSIL BRANDS	SANITARYWARE & BATHROOM PRODUCTS
QUEO	Luxury
Amore	Wellness and Spa Range
hindware Italian Collection/hindware Art	Premium/Super premium
hindware	Mid Market
Benelave	Mass Market
Raasi	Entry Level

Through this strategic segmentation, which underlines the utility as well as the aesthetic value for each brand, HSIL has been able to effectively embrace diverse customer segments.

New product categories

HSIL has diversified its product range by understanding and responding to consumer needs and expectations. Since the distribution structure for the new product categories has commonalities with the existing distribution cluster in the sanitaryware segment, the Company stands to gain from synergies in operation. Also, attractive growth opportunities exist in each of these new sectors, which additionally insulate the Company from dependency on any single product portfolio.

HSIL BRANDS	CONSUMER PRODUCTS
hindware-atlantic	Water heaters

moonbow	Air Purifiers
EVOK	Home interiors

Glamour quotient

By signing A-lister Bollywood celebrity, Shah Rukh Khan as brand ambassador, HSIL has ensured top-of-the-mind recall for hindware. The campaign was launched in mid-2015, and captured several qualities that epitomise the brand – glamour, international standards, sophistication and durability. The campaign began as a teaser, climaxing in a 'movie', and generated great excitement. For luxury brand QUEO, Bollywood actress Jacqueline Fernandez was chosen as the brand ambassador to enhance the brand's inherent qualities of sophistication and bespoke designing.

Digital initiatives

In the past year, several initiatives have been undertaken to increase the visibility of the hindware brand on search engine rankings and social media. The Company continued to engage with consumers through various 'touch points'. For instance, on National Science Day, a story was presented on HSIL's innovations; on Valentine's Day, the Company engaged with consumers on how personalised spaces like luxurious bathrooms can bring personal moments alive. Similar engagements happened on New Year's Day and Diwali. The aim of such initiatives is to link hindware with these special occasions, and convey the message that the brand is there with customers to celebrate life.

The Company also took a major digital leap with the online launch of its air purifiers, under the brand name moonbow. The launch took place on two of the largest platforms in e-commerce and organised retail. The response to the online launch has been overwhelming.

Large distribution network

To expand the reach and brand recall of its products, HSIL is continually reinforcing its distribution platform. The Company's current retail network consists of 3,000+ dealers and 20,000+ retailers across the country. This includes 140+ (125 from last year + 15 additional) hindware Galleria and 500 hindware shop-in-shops. Further with 28 depots and demand and supply being continuously monitored, no customer in Tier I and Tier II cities has to normally wait for more than a day or two for product delivery. As a result, the Company is able to service the orders in time.

The dealer and distribution base for the Consumer Products business has current footprint of more than 225 distributors and 4000 active sales touch points, a significant expansion from 2014-15 when distributor strength and retail points stood at 100 and 650 respectively.

Engaging retail outlets

To enhance awareness and visibility of its products, HSIL has set up four exclusive hindware display centres. These display centres, known as Lacasa, showcase the complete collection of hindware's top-of-the-range products, and are frequented by architects, designers and end users. In 2015, the Lacasa store was opened at Bengaluru. Plans are on the anvil to roll out more such display centres.

Robust after-sales service

To provide customers with responsive and reliable after-sales service, HSIL maintains 20 after sales service centres located across India, servicing 600+ districts, through "hindware care" which constitutes of in-house sales service team of 300+ certified service engineers. To ensure the highest quality of service to its customers, HSIL has been engaged for several years in the training and certification of its engineers.

Strong research and development

HSIL's in-house R & D facility, the first such set-up in the Indian sanitaryware industry, is recognised by the Ministry of Science & Technology, Government of India. Fitted with state-of-the-art equipment, the R&D facility helps in producing superior quality products through best practices and processes. The R&D facility is also engaged in developing cost control measures through cost-effective substitutes for raw materials few of these initiatives helped the Company reduce its raw material cost.

Water efficient products

Products which are water efficient play an important role today in the sanitaryware market. Depleting natural resources have made buyers more conscious about sustainability issues. This awareness is generating greater acceptance for products that minimise environmental wastage as well provide financial benefit. With reduction in water consumption now the need of the hour, the Company's R&D facility is highly focussed on designing 'Green Building Products'.

HSIL is the market pioneer in introducing 'star rated' water closets, the use of which can help save more than 65,000 litres of water a year per household. 20+ products have been awarded the UPC-I Star Rating certification by International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials (IAPMO), as of March 2016, reinforcing HSIL's expertise in developing water saving products.

Use of latest technology

HSIL deploys the most advanced technologies and the best-in-class machinery at its plants. The Company's faucet plant at Kaharani is the country's first bath fitting plant to introduce robotic grinding and polishing technology and a fully automatic dust-free electroplating line, which ensures precision, uniformity and quality across its production line.

Quality focus

HSIL manufactures high quality products that meet the most rigorous standards and exceed customer expectations. The products are manufactured at world-class facilities, which are equipped with the best-in-class machinery. All HSIL plants are designed to minimise the environmental fallout of sanitaryware manufacturing. The Company is the first in the Building Materials Industry to be awarded the prestigious ISO 9001 (quality management systems), 14001 (environment management systems) and OHSAS 18001 (occupational health and safety) certificates. The Bahadurgarh and Bibinagar plants have got the CE certification for complying with European standards.

Outlook

Indian homes are becoming a showcase for technology and aesthetics, with consumers seeking to enhance their lifestyles through quality and aspirational products. Brands that can deliver this unique experience are assured of success in the long run. With owning a well-appointed home being the top desire of middle class Indians and the higher income segment looking to invest in multiple properties, the building products industry is guaranteed a certain amount of return. Brand hindware is synonymous with sanitaryware in India. The goodwill created by the brand, backed by India's position as one of the most promising and stable consumer markets in the world, means many new growth opportunities for the future. The 'Make in India' initiative is further powering the growth prospects for the brand.

In 2016-17, the real estate sector is expected to enhance performance through focus on project execution and delivery. Swift project completion and improvement in home sales, as India embarks on a higher growth trajectory, signal excellent prospects for the building products industry. Also, the government's thrust on infrastructure development, construction industry and on improving sanitation levels augur well for the building product industry.

HSIL has positioned itself well to take advantage of the Indian consumers' love for the international feel in all their purchases. With agility on every front – production, distribution, cost control and product innovation – it continues to be the fittest player on the block.

Additionally, by venturing into allied areas in the building product industry, the foundation for long-term growth has been reinforced.

PACKAGING PRODUCTS INDUSTRY

Containers and packaging products are essential for storage, transportation and protection of goods across industrial and consumer sectors. Containers and packaging innovations help in the preservation of quality, and also give food and other perishables a longer shelf life. These innovations also aid safer and more efficient transportation of innumerable products. Packaging materials chiefly used by the industry include metal, plastic, paper, and glass.

The packaging industry in India is one of the fastest growing industries with an annual average growth rate of 13-15 per cent. The consumption of packaging materials is expected to increase significantly, driven by market dynamics. These include factors such as a large and growing Indian middle class, expansion of organised retail and e-retail in the country, and rapid growth of exports. Moreover, the per capita consumption of packaged goods in India is still very low compared to other regions. While in countries like Germany and Taiwan, the per capita consumption is 42 kg and 19 kg respectively, in India it is only 4.3kg, indicating bright prospects for the packaging industry. As per a report prepared by FICCI and Tata Strategic Management Group (TSMG), the packaging industry in India is expected to reach US$73 Billion in 2020 from US$32 Billion in FY 2015. In the coming years, as per the same report, the Indian packaging industry is projected to clock an attractive 18 percent annual growth rate.

Container Glass Segment

Container glass plays a pivotal role in the packaging industry and is used by various sectors such as liquor and beer; food and beverages; pharmaceuticals; cosmetics; and perfumes. Globally, glass container manufacturing has faced some challenges as a lot of the packaging has moved to paper, plastic and metal. There has also been volatility in raw material prices, energy inputs, and freight costs. However, the glass packaging market is expected to recover and reach US$45.9 Billion by 2018 globally.

(Source: Lucintel)

Given the benefits of glass packaging, the global glass packaging market for food and beverages is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 2.71 per cent over the period 2014-2019. (Source: Research and Markets). However, the packaging industry as a whole is projected to grow at a CAGR of 6.87 per cent over the same period.

(Source: TechNavio)

Lifestyle choices and disposable income influence this market, like any other, but the sector has some difficulties to overcome, especially competition from lighter, unbreakable packaging alternatives such as rigid plastic and pouches. In the process, established manufacturers across the world have had to look for new ways to stay relevant in the glass container industry, such as by offering value-added products, lighter weight packages and products with a degree of novelty, or by drastically slashing the cost of glass container manufacturing to make up for the drop in profits.

Benefits of glass packaging

Container Glass Segment

The main advantage of glass is that it is easily recyclable – in the European Union, glass recycling hit 73 per cent in 2015. (Source: Packaging Europe) Corresponding figures are, however, not available for the Indian recycling industry as it is mostly unorganised.

Glass packaging causes much less environmental damage than plastic, even if it ends up in a landfill. Glass being inert, no toxicity leaches into the stored liquid. For example, clear glass is the most preferred type of container for most varieties of food and beverage packaging.

While plastic is replacing glass as packaging material in many segments, the premium appeal and better barrier properties of glass make it indispensable for beer and liquor industry. Also, expensive, high-quality products such as injectables, security drugs, liquids etc. are mostly packaged in glass as it is much better for preservation, guaranteeing a much longer shelf life. Thus, beauty and personal care products, as well as organic and healthy food products are popularly using glass as a packaging material.

When it comes to aerated drinks, the urban Indian market is flooded with PET bottles and aluminium cans, but the rural market still relies on refillable glass packaging.

Lightweight glass

One way for glass packaging manufacturers to stay in the game is to adopt advanced technology to cut manufacturing cost and freight charges. Lightweight glass packaging is the answer. Indian manufacturers have adopted the 'narrow neck press and blow' (NNPB) technology to create lightweight glass packaging for their end users.

DEMAND DRIVERS FOR THE CONTAINER GLASS SEGMENT

Premium feel

With India being one of the youngest consumer markets demographically, brand consciousness is high. This provides a big thrust to the demand for branded products, with customers inclined towards buying products which are packaged attractively. Glass containers carry a higher quality or premium image compared to plastic and metal containers, thereby facilitating growth of the container glass segment.

Liquor and beer industry

Urban India is seeing the rise of a huge 'going out for a drink' culture. This is encouraging increased use of container glass as a packaging material, with liquor and beer representing the largest user segments of container glass. In fact, more than 50 per cent of the container glass is used to package liquor and beer and this share has been growing.

Indian Made Foreign Liquor (IMFL) is the largest segment in the Indian alcoholic beverage industry. IMFL and Indian Made Indian Liquor (IMIL) constitute 42.8 per cent and 30-36 per cent respectively of the alcoholic beverage market in India. India's favourable demographics of a large working age population, increasing disposable income, and growing social acceptance of alcohol consumption is stimulating the market for IMFL, which in turn fuels the demand for container glass. The total IMFL market was estimated at around 320 million cases in year 2015-16, as against 316 million cases in 2014-15.

Within the alcoholic beverage industry, beer is a rapidly expanding segment. It is currently ranked as the third largest and second fastest growing market in the Indian alcoholic beverages industry. Since beer has to be packed in either glass bottles or metal cans, this provides a fillip to the packaging industry. In 2015, the beer market in the country was estimated at 250 million cases, with over 98 per cent beer packaged in glass bottles with crown closure.

Indian wine is also growing in popularity and the best packaging option for wine is glass. By 2017, Indian wine consumption is estimated to rise to 2.1 million cases per year – an increase of 73 per cent from 1.21 million in 2013. The opportunity this provides for the growth of the container glass segment is immense.

(Source: India Briefing)

Packaged foods and beverages

Food items such as pickles, sauces and honey are now processed and marketed on a large scale through retail outlets. On the beverages front, carbonated soft drinks, fruit drinks and milk-based drinks are popular across the country. The predominant packaging material for these foods and beverages is glass. This is because glass does not deteriorate, corrode, stain or fade, enabling products inside glass containers to retain their original freshness and purity.

There is significant headroom for growth of container glass as a medium for packaging food and beverages. This is because the per capita consumption of packaged beverages and food in India is still very low relative to other countries. In the next five years, the expenditure on this category is projected to increase by 14 per cent annually, driven by growing disposable incomes, urbanisation and a young population. The current size of the food service industry is estimated to be nearly US$13.79 Billion, and its healthy CAGR of 17 per cent will boost the packaging sector.

The demand for returnable glass bottles for packaging soft drinks, especially in rural and semi-urban areas, continues to grow. The market for carbonated soft drinks is estimated at ₹ 25,000 Crores. The market size of flavoured milk is estimated at ₹ 1,600 Crores and fruit juice at ₹ 8,000 Crores. As per industry estimates, the demand for non-alcoholic beverages, which constitute carbonated soft drinks, juices, bottled water, ready to drink tea and coffee and sports drinks, is estimated at ₹ 65,000 Crores. The per capita consumption of non alcoholic beverages in India is 3 litres, compared to 90 litres in the US and 16 litres in Pakistan, providing huge growth opportunity for the glass packaging industry.

Pharmaceutical industry

Glass is commonly used in pharmaceutical packaging because it possesses superior protective qualities - inertness, impermeability, no deterioration with age, protection against light through use of coloured glass, availability of effective closures, etc. The technological advancements made by the glass packaging industry are also reinforcing the demand from the pharmaceutical industry.

The growth of the Indian pharmaceutical packaging industry is directly linked to the growth of the pharmaceutical manufacturing industry. India's large population base, increasing prevalence of chronic diseases, discovery of new medicines, and better healthcare awareness are expected to help the pharmaceutical industry maintain a CAGR of 18 per cent till 2020. In turn, the pharmaceutical packaging industry in India is expected to grow at a CAGR of 5.46 per cent till 2020, as per the 'Pharmaceuticals Packaging Industry in India 2015-2020' report, published by Novonous.

Shift towards eco-friendly and healthy packaging

Eco-friendly packaging is gaining preference among endusers as customers increasingly seek packaging that can be reused and causes minimum environmental damage.

Glass packaging, with its 100 per cent recyclable property, has a considerable advantage vis-à-vis other materials.

Being a pure and green medium, glass also fits the bill for non-toxic packaging. Many households have begun shunning plastic bottles at home, preferring to store drinking water and other potable liquids in glass bottles. The key factor behind this trend is that glass is not only extremely classy but is also considered absolutely safe year after year, whereas there are concerns over the gradual disintegration of the surface of plastic containers.

PET BOTTLES

Among the vast family of plastics, Polyethylene Terephthalate, popularly known as PET, is expected to grow the fastest. Most of the PET available in India is utilised in the production of bottles. In recent years, PET bottles have become ubiquitous in the Indian market, with annual growth rate in consumption exceeding 20.0 per cent (Source: Ken Research Report, 2014). In fact, aerated beverages in urban centres are increasingly being packaged in PET bottles, as are energy drinks and fruit juices.

The Asia-Pacific region is potentially the biggest market for PET bottles. In 2015, the global consumption of PET bottles across industries, e.g. beverages, foods, beauty and home care, amounted to 471 Billion bottles. About 42 per cent of this demand came from the Asia-Pacific region, and consumption is set to rise to 47 per cent by 2019 in this region.

HSIL -PACKAGING PRODUCTS DIVISION

HSIL's Packaging Products Division (PPD) is one of the leading container glass manufacturers in India, with a 17 per cent market share. The Company's packaging products range includes glass containers, PET bottles and yet to be introduced, security closures and caps, specially coloured glass bottles for packaging beverages, food, liquor, beer and pharmaceutical products. The glass and PET bottles are available under brand AGI and Garden Polymers (GP) respectively. Under the flagship brand AGI, HSIL also manufactures light weight glass bottles using NNPB technology on several lines.

Product innovation, world-class technology and superior customer connect has helped HSIL maintain its leadership position in the glass container packaging industry, even as glass packaging industries across the country faced stiff competition from other materials, along with operational and financial challenges.

Sales across the glass packaging industry continued to be impacted due to weak user demand during the year under review. The key initiatives that enabled HSIL to create opportunity and improve profitability amid this challenging scenario were:

- Switched to lower-cost fuel at the manufacturing facilities.
- Renegotiated various raw materials and other input material costs to optimise overall costs.
- Adopted new technologies and process modernisation, leading to improvement in input/output ratio by 2 per cent.
- Offered value-added products, such as coloured bottles and smaller sized bottles, which helped in getting better realisations.
- Used advanced technology (NNPB), with significant capital investments, to make several varieties of lightweight bottles for pharma and beverage industries.
- Improved process control, increased cullet use, and reduced wastages and rejects to build operating efficiencies.
- Further strengthened customer relationships by offering value-added services.

Venturing into New Product Lines

An important development during the year was that the Company embarked on a new product line. The new products the Company will be manufacturing are security caps and closures, aimed at blocking counterfeit goods in the liquor market, as most of the liquor companies in India do not have a speciality product to prevent counterfeiting. The estimated market size for these products is 3,700 million pieces of caps per annum, indicating a strong growth potential.

HSIL had worked on the R&D for this along with an international consultant for two years. The product has been developed and tested in the market, and the response from customers has been good. The necessary product patents have already been filed in this regard. This new product line will be a value addition to the existing portfolio of HSIL's packaging products, offering clients a brand new and tremendously useful packaging feature.

A manufacturing plant is coming up in Telangana at an investment cost of ₹ 112 Crores to leverage the large market for these products in the southern states of India.

Key Differentiators

Client relationships: HSIL's strong and lasting relationships with its clients are a crucial factor behind its success. A significant number of the Company's institutional clients include the world's leading and famous brands across diverse industries. The Company is continuously collaborating with them to develop products as per their specifications. During the year under review, HSIL took the idea of security caps to institutional clients who are seriously affected by counterfeit products. This is not only a new business opportunity but also an innovation that would benefit clients and strengthen HSIL's client relationships.

Location advantage: HSIL's packaging plants are in close proximity to customers' filling locations, thereby minimising logistics and freight costs. The Company's container glass plants are situated in Telangana, a strategic state since various alcoholic and other bottling operations are located in nearby regions.

Exciting portfolio: In a crowded and competitive market, customers are increasingly focussed on speciality bottles to differentiate their products. HSIL's state-of-the-art technology and innovation in product development enables it to manufacture bottles of various sizes, colours and shapes. The Company's portfolio includes 541 glass bottle variants. Also, HSIL is the only Indian company to possess the technology to manufacture speciality coloured bottles as per specific client needs. This puts HSIL in a very strong position as the only replacement available to a customer is an imported bottle, which is costlier as against sourcing it from us.

Stringent quality standards: Manufacturing and product excellence lies at the heart of HSIL's strategy to achieve sustainable growth. The Company's products go through the most stringent quality checks, enabling it to ensure lower rejection rates and minimal customer complaints.

Quick technology upgrade: HSIL's plants are equipped with the latest and the most modern technology, enabling it to deliver cost-effective as well as niche products. This strengthens the Company's competitive edge in the industry. Seeing the benefits of making lightweight glass containers, the Company has invested capital to quickly upgrade its manufacturing facilities, ensuring that its products remain relevant for customers.

Highlights of 2015-16

- There was a significant improvement in profitability due to concerted measures
- 39 new glass bottles, including 9 lightweight bottle varieties, were introduced,
- 20 new PET bottles introduced
- 66 new clients were added

Outlook

The packaging industry in India is poised for stable growth as existing markets continue to evolve and new ones are continuously opening up. According to the Packaging Industry Association of India (PIAI), packaging is one of the fastest growing sectors in the country, partly because of its usage across industries. From food and beverages, pharmaceutical formulations to personal care products, packaging is now a vital aspect across all sectors to protect and transport products, apart from enhancing their visual appeal.

Going forward, companies catering to India's food, beverage, health and beauty, and pharmaceuticals sectors are expected to witness rapid growth, pulling up demand for packaging. The preference for clean, safe and branded products will also create new opportunities for packaging. The Asia-Pacific region is the fastest growing market for PET bottles, which offers bright prospects for PET bottle manufacturers.

EVOK

HSIL had forayed into speciality home interior products, which are sold under the brand name 'EVOK'. The home interior business is spearheaded by Hindware Home Retail Private Ltd (HHRPL), a wholly-owned subsidiary of HSIL. Evok stores showcase over 20000+ world class contemporary products in home interiors and also provides a vast array of services which includes Design to Build (Interior Design Services), Turnkey Installation and Post Care Services.

HUMAN RESOURCES

An organisation is what the team is. It is a proven fact now that the long-term success of a company, the prospect of staying highly relevant, competitive and profitable, and of being always trusted by customers, depends on its employees. Without talented and committed employees, an organisation is a shell without a soul, but with their vision and energy and innovation, it is transformed into a vibrant, living entity with a bright future.

Recognising this fundamental aspect of building a great Company from within – using the same principles of extreme care and quality assurance that it puts into its products – HSIL has a policy of proactively attracting, training, and retaining the best people in the business. This is the policy that has helped the Company remain the market leader for years.

Just as the Company reaches out to its external stakeholders in every way possible, internally, too, the employees know that they have one of the best work environments in the industry, where they can share their ideas, and can communicate with the management in an open, transparent manner to address any issues. Such an enabling environment lets HSIL's talented employees stay completely focussed on developing their own skills while nurturing the business, thus reaching their goals or even exceeding them. The Company instils the spirit of entrepreneurship in its employees and encourages them to advance professionally to the fullest extent of their abilities. The Company, in fact, works constantly on enhancing those abilities through in-house training.

HSIL's human resource development practices are in line with the best international norms, and these are revisited and revised as often as necessary in order to accommodate employee requirements and increase work satisfaction. This investment in the human capital has enabled the Company to not only survive the toughest economic conditions, but also to create opportunities out of those conditions.

The Company recruits from the top institutions, spotting talent in both Tier I and Tier II cities. The new hires from Tier II cities, where a lot of growth is happening in India, are given extensive training for 60 days, following which they start working in the field in frontline sales. This training programme is called SAKSHAM, and under SAKSHAM, about 50-60 students are hired every year, and they help reinforce the HSIL brand name across the country.

The HR training calendar is prepared at the beginning of each year in consultation with employees and their reporting managers to identify areas of skill gaps and decide how to close those gaps through tailored training modules. Everything from matters pertaining to basic organisational culture to specific technical skill requirements or problem-solving is looked at. Just as the Company works upon capacity utilisation in its manufacturing units, it also invests in capacity utilisation of its employees.

As a performance-oriented company, HSIL depends highly on qualified and talented personnel. Its 'MUST RETAIN' list is a list of those who add the most value to the Company, which gives the employees everything in its power, including mentoring and development opportunities, to help fulfil their potential.

Every year, TOWN HALL meets are organised, so that employees at every level get to directly interact with the senior management. At these meets, the Company's JMD shares his vision for the organisation; this face-to-face exchange is both an informative and a trust-building exercise. It helps every employee, whatever their function, to see the important role they play in making HSIL great.

As of March 31, 2016, the Company's total employee strength stood at over 3554.

RISK MANAGEMENT

CORPORATE LEVEL

Risk Description

Economic Slowdown

The risk of economic slowdown and its impact on the demand for HSIL products.

Mitigation

India continues to be one of the fastest growing economies in the world, remaining relatively unscathed even in the face of global turmoil. Renewed government focus on key areas, including fiscal prudence, infrastructure, power and rural sectors, is expected to stimulate the economy and lay the foundation for growth rates of 8 per cent or higher in the next couple of years. Further, growing urbanisation and rise in the middle class is expected to drive consumption in India. With its strong market presence and brand equity, HSIL strives to catalyse the demand for its products. Moreover, the Company is now present across various product categories, insulating it from vagaries in any one sector and, at the same time, providing new opportunities for growth.

Mitigation

The company is working on the plans to lower the working capital requirements by striving to optimise amount of receivables & inventories and extending the maturities of payables.

Risk Description

Funding and Other Financial Risks

Risks related to the cost and availability of funds to meet business needs.

Mitigation

HSIL's financial risk management is based upon sound economic objectives and good corporate practice. The Company negotiates funding requirements in a timely manner, thus ensuring that there is sufficient margin to mitigate the risk of lack of availability of funds.

Its superior credit profile and strong relationship with lenders allows it to tie up optimal financing mix at competitive costs. HSIL also strives to manage its debt portfolio, by actively exploring opportunities to reduce cost of existing long-term debt, as well as to increase the average maturity of its proposed debts to optimal level. It has also led to the upgradation of its credit rating this year.

BUILDING PRODUCTS DIVISION

Risk Description

Market Conditions and Growth

Adverse trends in the real estate sector and reduced activity in property repair and renovation may impact demand for HSIL products.

Mitigation

Improvement in macro-economic stability is expected to drive investments in real estate, which in turn will push demand for the Company's products. Additionally, the government's vision to provide 'Housing for All by 2022' is expected to provide a thrust to the real estate and housing sector. The government's sanitation campaign is also expected to benefit the industry.

Increased buying power of consumers, triggered by economic growth and aspirations to improve lifestyle, is expected to stimulate expenditure on new construction and renovation, thus pushing the demand for HSIL's products. Moreover, the Company maintains a healthy balance between its retail and institutional clients. During the year under review, the Company reduced its dependence on institutional sectors to 24 per cent from 30 per cent earlier, thus further curtailing the risk factor.

Risk Description

Product Innovation

Failure to anticipate and meet customer requirements may adversely affect market share.

Mitigation

HSIL has an extensive range of products across the value chain to reach out to more customers and drive market penetration. Through its extensive market insights and R&D efforts, the Company is continually exploring new horizons in products and services, in line with customer aspirations. Embracing cutting edge technology, using cost-effective raw materials, and deploying improved processes, the Company is making available an array of quality products to customers. Further, recognising that the premium segment is the fastest growing category in the Building Products Division, the Company is proactively innovating and developing premium and luxury products. During 2015-16, 126 new products were launched in this division.

Risk DescriptionCompetition

Market conditions remain highly competitive, which could lead to increased downward pressure on sales, prices and profit margins.

Mitigation

The presence of brands at every price point makes HSIL connect with a wider customer profile. The Company has a formidable reputation and legacy in the sanitaryware business, which gives it a competitive edge vis-à-vis market peers. The hindware brand enjoys top-of-the-mind recall and is a market leader in the sanitaryware industry. Further, focussed expenditure on advertising and promotional activities has enabled HSIL to reinforce the strength, appeal and relevance of its brands. Its wide distribution network and after-sales service enables the Company to reach out to customers better, encouraging brand loyalty. Anticipating the aspirations of its customers, the Company remains focussed on creating exclusive products and services that will enable it to hold its own in a competitive market place.

Risk DescriptionQuality

Inconsistent product quality could lead to customer dissatisfaction, hampering reputation, sales and business.

Mitigation

At HSIL, quality control is a top and an uncompromising priority. The Company has stringent and exhaustive quality checks, in line with international standards, at every stage of manufacturing.

The plants are accredited with ISO: 9001, ISO: 14001 and OHSAS: 18001 certifications. Load testing is done for random products and if any discrepancy is found, the entire batch is rejected. Additionally, the Company continues to improve resource utilisation and minimise in-process rejections by leveraging quality tests across all facilities. Going forward, the Company remains focussed on improving quality systems and their effectiveness to lessen the incidence of this risk, and simultaneously improve operational efficiencies.

PACKAGING PRODUCTS DIVISION

Risk DescriptionMarket Conditions and Growth

Slowdown in end-user segments could impact sales.

Mitigation

While in the short term, sales could be impacted, the medium and long-term growth story remains intact. This is because per capita packaging consumption in India is significantly lower compared to other developed nations. As India moves forward on a higher growth trajectory, and with the expansion of the middle class, consumerism is expected to increase further. Sectors such as food processing, organised retail, alcoholic beverages, chemical and pharmaceuticals will benefit, providing direct stimulus to the packaging industry. Further, with more health awareness, there is an upward trend of using packaged goods and branded products rather than unpackaged items.

Risk DescriptionOperational Challenges

Cost pressures and reduced productivity could negatively impact operating margins and expansion plans.

Mitigation

HSIL is consistently strengthening this business division by making the operations more competitive and disciplined. Concentrated efforts to reduce costs and enhance productivity have yielded tangible results, with a marked reduction in controllable costs. The use of alternative fuels instead of high-cost fuel has had a significant bearing on margins in the container glass segment. Productivity has been improved across all the plants through debottlenecking and capacity augmentation; steps for further improvement are being taken. By leveraging best manufacturing practices and processes, enhancing capacity utilisation, renegotiating prices with suppliers, and reducing wastages, HSIL has been able to improve operational efficiencies. Moreover, HSIL is the sole producer in the country for speciality coloured bottles, which helps improve realisations.

Risk DescriptionProduct Substitution

The use of plastic for packaging can reduce the demand for container glass.

Mitigation

Though the glass packaging market faces a growing threat from plastics, glass is expected to witness sustained growth as the material continues to remain a superior packaging choice, especially for food and beverages, alcoholic drinks, pharmaceuticals, chemicals, cosmetics etc, owing to its unique properties such as the ability to preserve products longer, aesthetic qualities and cleanliness. Moreover, glass is preferred for being environment-friendly as it is infinitely recyclable. In addition, HSIL has forayed into the lightweight glass bottles segment, which helps reduce logistical costs for customers.

Risk Description

Quality

Inconsistent product quality may drive client attrition, hampering business growth.

Mitigation

HSIL follows stringent controls at every stage of manufacturing to ensure that all its products meet the highest standards of quality and safety. The plants have international accreditations to endorse this quality focus. Automatic computerised checking, followed by rigorous manual inspection, ensures that HSIL remains an industry leader when it comes to product quality. The uncompromising attention to delivering quality products is validated by the Company's prestigious client list, featuring some of the world's most acclaimed companies and brands.

Risk Description

Client Attrition

Overdependence on a few clients may have an adverse effect on sales in case of client attrition.

Mitigation

The Company's client profile is wide and spread across several industries. HSIL remains committed to building successful relationships to foster a loyal customer base. Moreover, for the year under review, no single client accounted for more than 23 per cent of the division's sales. The Company strengthened its customer base by adding 66 new clients in 2015-16.

INTERNAL CONTROLS AND ADEQUACY

The Company believes that a strong internal control framework is necessary for business efficiency, management effectiveness and safeguarding assets. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of HSIL Limited

Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

1. We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of HSIL Limited (the 'Company'), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2016, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

2. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act') with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements, that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (as amended). This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act; safeguarding the assets of the Company; preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these standalone financial statements based on our audit.
4. We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.
5. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements are free from material misstatement.

6. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial controls relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.
7. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Opinion

8. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2016, its profit and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Emphasis of Matter

9. We draw attention to Note 49 to the financial statements regarding the utilisation of the Business Reconstruction Reserve ('BRR') created in accordance with a scheme of arrangement (the 'Scheme') approved by the Hon'ble Calcutta High Court. The Scheme provides that the Board of Directors of the Company can utilise the BRR, inter alia, to recognize diminution in the value of investment. In terms of the Scheme, the Board of Directors of the Company have credited an amount of Rs. 1,643.46 lacs to the statement of profit and loss towards diminution in the carrying value of a long-term investment in one of its overseas subsidiaries. The applicable accounting standards and accounting principles generally accepted in India do not provide for credit of amounts released from reserves to the statement of profit and loss. Had the accounting principles generally accepted in India been followed, the exceptional item of expense in the statement of profit and loss would have been higher by Rs. 1,643.46 lacs and the profit after tax and the balance of surplus in the statement of profit and loss would have been lower by Rs. 1,643.46 lacs. Our audit opinion is not qualified in the respect of this matter.

STATEMENT OF PROFIT & LOSS ACCOUNT

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

10. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016 (the 'Order') issued by the Central Government of India in terms of Section 143(11) of the Act, we give in the Annexure I a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order.
11. As required by Section 143(3) of the Act, we report that:
 - a. we have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
 - b. in our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books;
 - c. the standalone financial statements dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;
 - d. in our opinion, read with paragraph 9 above, the aforesaid standalone financial statements comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (as amended);
 - e. on the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on 31 March 2016 and taken on record by the Board of Directors,
 - none of the directors is disqualified as on 31 March 2016 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164(2) of the Act;
 - f. we have also audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting (IFCoFR) of the Company as of 31 March 2016 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date and our report dated 23 May 2016 as per Annexure II expressed an unqualified opinion; and
 - g. with respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:
 - i. as detailed in Note 31 to the standalone financial statements, the Company has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its standalone financial position;
 - ii. the Company did not have any long-term contracts including derivative contracts for which there were any material foreseeable losses; and
 - iii. there has been no delay in transferring amounts, required to be transferred, to the Investor Education and Protection Fund by the Company.

ANNEXURE II

Independent Auditor's report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act')

1. In conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of HSIL Limited (the 'Company') as of and for the year ended 31 March 2016, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting (IFCoFR) of the Company as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of the company's business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's IFCoFR based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing, issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of IFCoFR, and the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate IFCoFR were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.
4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the IFCoFR and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of IFCoFR included obtaining an understanding of IFCoFR, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's IFCoFR.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

6. A company's IFCoFR is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's IFCoFR includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

7. Because of the inherent limitations of IFCoFR, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the IFCoFR to future periods are subject to the risk that IFCoFR may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by ICAI.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

and other explanatory information to financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016

NOTE 1 : BASIS OF ACCOUNTING AND PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The financial statements have been prepared to comply with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (as amended). The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention on accrual basis, as supplemented by revaluation of certain fixed assets. The accounting policies have been consistently applied by HSIL Limited (the 'Company').

NOTE 2 : USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosure relating to contingent liabilities as at the date of financial statements and reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from those estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognised in the current and future periods.

Based on the nature of products / activities of the Company and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

NOTE 3 : SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

i Fixed assets

Tangible

Tangible assets (other than those which have been revalued) are stated at cost of acquisition less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Cost comprises the purchase price (net of cenvat credit availed) and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Expenditure on account of restoration/modification/alteration in plant and machinery/building, which increases the future benefit from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance/estimated useful life, is capitalised.

Capital expenditure incurred on rented properties is classified as 'Leasehold improvements' under fixed assets.

Pre-operative expenditure including borrowing cost (net of revenue, where applicable) and foreign exchange differences on specific project loans incurred during the construction/trial run of the project is allocated on an appropriate basis to fixed assets upon commissioning.

Intangible

Intangible assets are recognised if and only if it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the assets will flow to the Company and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably in accordance with the notified Accounting Standard-26.

Capital work-in-progress

Capital work-in-progress includes assets under construction/installation comprising of direct cost and related incidental expenses. Capital work-in-progress is stated at cost and not depreciated. Depreciation on capital work-in-progress commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

2. Building	10 - 60 years
3. Furniture and fixtures	10 years
4. Office equipments	5 years
5. Computer including software	3 - 6 years

* inter -alia, included in the aforementioned block of assets, are furnaces pertaining to the glass plant of the Company amounting to a gross book value of ₹ 21,107.08 lacs (previous year ₹ 20,832.99 lacs) where the management has adopted a useful life different from what is prescribed under Schedule II of the Act, based on independent chartered engineer's certificate.

- b) Leasehold improvements are being amortised over the lease period or estimated useful life of the leasehold improvements, whichever is lower.
- c) Leasehold land has been amortized over the period of lease except for leasehold land

and other explanatory information to financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016 which is for 99 years where no amortization is done in view of the lease being perpetual.

- d) Vehicles are being depreciated using written down value method as per life of 8 years as mentioned in Schedule II of the Act.

B Intangible

- a) Technical knowhow is being amortised over a period of ten years.
- b) Goodwill arising on merger is amortized over a period of seven years.

iii Impairment of assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.

iv Investments

Investments that are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

Current investments are valued at the lower of cost and fair value. Long-term investments are stated at cost.

Provision is made for diminution in the value of long-term investments to recognise a decline, if any, other than temporary in nature.

Profit/loss on sale of investments are computed with reference to their cost determined on first in first out basis.

v Inventories

a) Inventories are valued as follows:

Raw materials including components, packing materials, stores and spares and goods-in-transit - At lower of cost and net realisable value. However, materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost.

Work-in-progress - At cost up to estimated stage of completion.

Finished goods and traded goods - At lower of cost and net realisable value.

b) Cost of inventories is ascertained on the following basis:

Raw materials, stores and spare parts and packing materials - On weighted average basis.

Finished goods - traded - On weighted average basis.

Cost of manufactured finished goods and stock in process determined on weighted average basis and comprises of material, labour, other related production overheads and non-recoverable duties.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated cost of completion to make the sale.

a) Provident fund

The Company makes contributions to independently constituted trusts recognized by income-tax authorities and regional provident fund. In terms of the Guidance note on implementing the Revised AS 15, issued by the Accounting Standard Board of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the 'ICAI'), the provident fund set up by the Company is treated as a defined benefit plan since the Company has to meet the interest shortfall, if any. Accordingly, the contribution paid or payable and the interest shortfall, if any is recognized as an expense in the period in which services are rendered by the employee.

b) Gratuity

Gratuity is a post employment defined benefit plan. The liability recognised in respect of gratuity is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date less the fair value of plan assets, together with adjustments for unrecognised actuarial gains or losses and past service costs. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience, adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recorded as expense or income in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which such gains or losses arise.

c) Compensated absences

The liability in respect of compensated absences is determined on the basis of actuarial valuation performed by an independent actuary using the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains or losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year they arise.

d) Other short term benefits

xi Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of transaction. Differences arising out of foreign currency transactions settled during the year are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Monetary items outstanding at the balance sheet date and denominated in foreign currencies are restated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Differences arising on such restatement are recognised in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent permitted by the transitional provisions contained in the Companies (Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2009 in respect of long term foreign currency monetary items, in which case the cost of fixed assets are adjusted by the translation differences and amortised over the remaining useful life of the related asset.

The premium or discount arising at the inception of forward exchange contracts is amortised as expense or income over the life of the contract. Exchange differences on such contracts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the exchange rates change. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of forward exchange contract is recognised as income or as expense for the year.

Forward exchange contracts and other currency derivative contracts that are not in principle forward contracts in accordance with the notified Accounting Standard 11 'Effect of change in Foreign Exchange Rates' that are entered to hedge the foreign currency risk of highly probable forecast transactions and firm commitments are marked to market at the balance sheet date and exchange loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss immediately. Any gain is ignored and not recognised in the financial statements, in accordance with the principles of prudence enunciated in the notified Accounting Standard 1- Disclosure of Accounting Policies.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

and other explanatory information to financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016

xii Research and development

Research and development expenditure is charged to statement of profit and loss except capital expenditure, which is added to the cost of respective fixed assets in the year in which it is incurred.

xiii Borrowing cost

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition and/or construction of qualifying assets are capitalised as part of the cost of such assets, in accordance with the notified Accounting Standard 16 'Borrowing Costs'. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is suspended in the period during which the active development is delayed other than temporary interruption. All other borrowing costs are charged to the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

xiv Taxes on income

Tax expense comprises current income-tax and deferred income-tax.

Current tax is determined as higher of the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the period or tax payable on book profit computed in accordance with the provisions of section 115JB of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Deferred income-tax reflects the impact of current year timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the year and reversal of timing differences of earlier years. Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable/virtual certainty, depending on the nature of the timing differences, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Minimum Alternate Tax ('MAT') credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income-tax during the specified period. In the year in which MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognised as an asset in accordance with the recommendations contained in guidance note issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the said asset is created by way of a credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as MAT credit entitlement. The Company reviews the same at each balance sheet date and writes down the carrying amount of MAT credit entitlement to the extent it is not reasonably certain that the Company will pay normal income-tax during the specified period.

xv Share issue expenses

The share issue expenses are adjusted against the balance in Securities Premium Account as permitted under Section 52 of the Act.

xvi Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year is adjusted for events of bonus issue, share split and any new equity issue.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

xvii Contingent liabilities and provisions

The Company makes a provision when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event, where the outflow of economic resources is probable and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made.

A disclosure is made for a contingent liability when there is a:

- possible obligation, the existence of which will be confirmed by the occurrence/non-occurrence of one or more uncertain events, not fully within the control of the Company;
- present obligation, where it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; and
- present obligation, where a reliable estimate cannot be made.

When there is a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

xviii Measurement of EBITDA

As permitted by the Guidance Note on the Revised Schedule VI to the Companies Act, 1956 (now Schedule III of Companies Act, 2013), the Company has elected to present earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (EBITDA) as a separate line item on the face of the statement of profit and loss. In its measurement, the Company does not include depreciation and amortisation expense, finance costs and tax expense.

ANNEXURE I

Annexure I to the Independent Auditor's Report of even date to the members of HSIL Limited, on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016

Independent Auditor's report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act')

1. In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the HSIL Limited (the 'Holding Company') and its subsidiaries, (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as the 'Group'), as of and for the year ended 31 March 2016, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting (IFCoFR) of the Holding Company and its subsidiary company which is a company incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary company which is a company incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of the company's business, including adherence to the company's policies, the safeguarding of the company's assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the IFCoFR of the Holding Company and its subsidiary company as aforesaid, based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing, issued by the ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of IFCoFR and the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate IFCoFR were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the IFCoFR and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of IFCoFR included obtaining an understanding of IFCoFR, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.
5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the IFCoFR of the Holding Company and its subsidiary company as aforesaid.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

6. A company's IFCoFR is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's IFCoFR includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

7. Because of the inherent limitations of IFCoFR, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the IFCoFR to future periods are subject to the risk that the IFCoFR may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary company, which is a company incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by ICAI.

Other Matters

9. We did not audit the IFCoFR insofar as it relates to one subsidiary company, which is a company incorporated in India, whose financial statements / financial information reflect total assets (after eliminating intra-group

If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.

iv Investments

Investments that are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

Current investments are valued at the lower of cost and fair value. Long-term investments are stated at cost.

ix Employee benefits

Expenses and liabilities in respect of employee benefits are recorded in accordance with Accounting Standard 15, 'Employee Benefits (Revised 2005)' ('Revised AS 15').

a) Provident fund

The Parent Company makes contributions to independently constituted trusts recognized by income tax authorities and regional provident fund. In terms of the Guidance note on implementing the Revised AS 15, issued by the Accounting Standard Board of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the 'ICAI'), the provident fund set up by the Parent Company is treated as a defined benefit plan since the Parent Company has to meet the interest shortfall, if any. Accordingly, the contribution paid or payable and the interest shortfall, if any is recognized as an expense in the period in which services are rendered by the employee.

For other companies of the Group, provident fund benefit is a defined contribution plan where fixed contributions are made into funds established under Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provision Act, 1952.

b) Gratuity

Gratuity is a post employment defined benefit plan. The liability recognised in respect of gratuity is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date less the fair value of plan assets, together with adjustments for unrecognised actuarial gains or losses and past service costs. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience, adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recorded as expense or income in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which such gains or losses arise.

c) Compensated absence

The liability in respect of compensated absences is determined on the basis of actuarial valuation performed by an independent actuary using the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains or losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year they arise.

d) Other short term benefits

Expenses relating to other short term benefits is recognised on the basis of amount paid or payable for the period during which services are rendered by the employee.

x Leases

Operating lease

Lease rentals in respect of assets taken on operating lease are charged to the statement of profit and loss on straight line basis over the term of the lease.

xi Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of transaction. Differences arising out of foreign currency transactions settled during the year are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Monetary items outstanding at the balance sheet date and denominated in foreign currencies are restated at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Differences arising on such restatement are recognised in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent permitted by the transitional provisions contained in the Companies (Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2009 in respect of long term foreign currency monetary items, in which case the cost of fixed assets are adjusted by the translation differences and amortised over the remaining useful life of the related asset.

The premium or discount arising at the inception of forward exchange contracts is amortised as expense or income over the life of the contract. Exchange differences on such contracts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the exchange rates change. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of forward exchange contract is recognised as income or as expense for the year.

Forward exchange contracts and other currency derivative contracts that are not in principle forward contracts in accordance with the notified Accounting Standard 11 'Effect of change in Foreign Exchange Rates' that are entered to hedge the foreign currency risk of highly probable forecast transactions and firm commitments are marked to market at the balance sheet date and exchange loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss immediately. Any gain is ignored and other explanatory information to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016 and not recognised in the financial statements, in accordance with the principles of prudence enunciated in the notified Accounting Standard 1- Disclosure of Accounting Policies.

xii Research and development

Research and development expenditure is charged to statement of profit and loss except capital expenditure, which is added to the cost of respective fixed assets in the year in which it is incurred.

xiii Borrowing cost

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition and/or construction of qualifying assets are capitalised as part of the cost of such assets, in accordance with Accounting Standard 16 'Borrowing Costs'. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is suspended in the period during which the active development is delayed other than temporary interruption. All other borrowing costs are charged to the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

xiv Taxes on income

Tax expense comprises current income-tax and deferred income tax.

Current tax is determined as higher of the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the period or tax payable on book profit computed in accordance with the provisions of section 115JB of the Income tax Act, 1961.

Deferred income-tax reflects the impact of current year timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the year and reversal of timing differences of earlier years. Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable/virtual certainty, depending on the nature of the timing differences, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Minimum Alternate Tax ('MAT') credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Group will pay normal income-tax during the specified period. In the year in which MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognised as an asset in accordance with the recommendations contained in guidance note issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the said asset is created by way of a credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as MAT credit entitlement. The Group reviews the same at each balance sheet date and writes down the carrying amount of MAT credit entitlement to the extent it is not reasonably certain that the Group will pay normal income tax during the specified period.

xv Share issue expenses

The share issue expenses are adjusted against the balance in Securities Premium Account as permitted under Section 52 of the Act.

xvi Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year is adjusted for events of bonus issue, share split and any new equity issue.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

xvii Contingent liabilities and provisions

The Group makes a provision when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event where the outflow of economic resources is probable and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made.

A disclosure is made for a contingent liability when there is a:

- possible obligation, the existence of which will be confirmed by the occurrence/non-occurrence of one or more uncertain events, not fully within the control of the Group;
- present obligation, where it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; and

and other explanatory information to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016

- present obligation, where a reliable estimate cannot be made.

When there is a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

reasonable basis, have been included as unallocated corporate expenses.

- c) Assets and liabilities, which relate to the Group as a whole and are not allocable to segments on a reasonable basis, are shown as unallocated assets and liabilities respectively.

xviii Segment reporting

- a) Revenues and expenses have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment.
- b) Revenues and expenses, which relate to the Group as a whole and are not allocable to segments on a

xix Measurement of EBITDA

As permitted by the Guidance Note on the Revised Schedule VI to the Companies Act, 1956 (now Schedule III of Companies Act, 2013), the Group has elected to present earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (EBITDA) as a separate line item on the face of the statement of profit and loss.
